IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

WRIT PETITION NO. 7721 OF 2005

Govbind L. Alwani ....Petitioner
V/s
Smt.Renu Gobind Alwani. ....Respondent.

Ms.Prachi Tatke, Adv. For the petitioner.

CORAM: A.P.DESHPANDE, J.
12/9/07

PC:

By the present petition the grievance that is made by the petitioner-husband is that the Family Court has passed orders contrary to the orders passed by the Supreme Court and the High Court and has passed remarks which has caused reasonable apprehension in the mind of the petitioner that the Family Court Judge trying the matter is biased against the petitioner. It is settled position in law that the reasonable apprehension of bias has to be of right thinking person. Perusal of the application reveals that the Family Court Judge was much concerned about the payment of interim maintenance to the wife and hence was insisting for payment of the maintenance amount. Perusal of the application for transfer moved before the Principal Judge has been rejected on the ground that the Principal Judge has no power to consider the application for transfer. Be it as it may, I have gone through the application and I do not find just and sufficient cause to direct transfer of the matter from the Presiding Officer dealing with the same to any other Presiding Officer. In the result writ petition is summarily dismissed.

12.9.07